

VERIFIED PETITION FOR NAME CHANGE

General Instructions

PLEASE READ FIRST: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a Court document, you may be helping or hurting your case. Before you sign any Court document or get involved with a Court case, it is important that you see a lawyer to make sure you are doing the right thing. Although there are risks in self-representation, should you choose to represent yourself you must be prepared. Although these forms have been prepared to help you represent yourself, you should know that certain Courts have their own procedures and may not accept every form. You may represent yourself in court, but you will have to abide by the appropriate court rules, Indiana Rules of Evidence, Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, and any local rules. For additional information, you may refer to the Indiana Self-Service Legal Center that can be found at www.in.gov/judiciary/selfservice/index.html. For legal advice about your case, you should get in touch with a lawyer.

Step 1: Who should use this packet

You should use these forms if:

1. You would like to change your name;
2. You are not in jail or prison;
3. You are over eighteen (18) years of age;
4. You have not been convicted of a felony in the last ten (10) years; and
5. You are not trying to avoid creditors.

Step 2: What this packet contains

This packet contains forms for you to fill out and take to the Clerk of the Court if you want your name changed. There are six forms in this packet. This packet also contains instructions.

Step 3: Which forms to fill out

You must fill out all six forms.

1. Appearance form
2. Verified Petition for Change of Name
3. Notice of Filing Proof of Publication and Request for Hearing
4. Affidavit of Publication
5. Notice of Hearing
6. Order on Verified Petition for Change of Name

Step 4: How to File These Forms

1. Follow the instructions attached to each form to fill it out. You will need to type or print neatly in black ink. Do not print on the back or sides of the forms, print only in the blanks provided.
2. Before filing these forms, check with your local Clerk to find out in which Court you must file for your name change and to find out the number of copies you must provide. Prepare the required number of copies of each of the forms that you have filled out.

3. Take the originals and the copies of the Appearance and the Verified Petition for Change of Name to the proper Court Clerk in the county where you live. The clerk will file stamp the forms, keep the originals and necessary copies, and hand back the rest of the copies to you.
4. There is a $104.00 filing fee in most counties. The Clerk will instruct you where to pay the filing fee. Be advised that most Courts will not waive this fee.
5. Contact a newspaper in the county where you live and make arrangements to publish a legal notice of your change of name. Give a copy of the forms you filed with the Clerk to this newspaper. The notice must be published once a week for three weeks. Newspapers generally charge around $100.00 to publish this notice. Keep track of the notices when they are published. Keep a copy of the newspaper every time your notice appears in them. Fill out the Affidavit of Publication with the dates your notice was published. Take the Affidavit of Publication (Form 4) to the newspaper and ask them to verify publication. They will need to sign this document. Some will prepare a Notice of Publication for you to give to the Court.
6. You MUST WAIT thirty (30) days after the last date of publication before you file proof with the Court. Take the originals and copies of the Notice of Filing Proof of Publication and Request for Hearing, the Affidavit of Publication, the Notice of Hearing, and any other documents the newspaper gives you back to the Court for filing. Take a self-addressed, stamped envelope in case the Court must mail you the hearing date.
7. Take the Order on Name Change to your hearing so the judge can sign it. You should be prepared to explain to the judge why you want to change your name and that you are not trying to avoid creditors.
8. Once your name has been changed, it is your responsibility to inform government agencies, your employer, your creditors, and other interested agencies and businesses of your new name.
